The IDHS District Liaisons are the conduit between the State of Indiana and the local partners. District Liaisons interpret the State initiatives and empower the local responders to attain their own local goals through planning, training and exercise. The District Liaison Section works diligently to foster strong relationships, display leadership and resilience in all aspects of Emergency Management and Response.