FINAL ORDER

Pursuant to the authority of IC 4-21.5-3-29(c), The Indiana Emergency Medical Services Commission (the "Commission") acting as the ultimate authority in this proceeding, issues this Final Order pursuant to the Indiana Administrative Orders and Procedures Act, codified at IC 4-21-5-3.

I.

FINAL ORDER

The Commission hereby affirms the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and non-final order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued on March 29, 2018. The Commission issues this FINAL ORDER, which affirms that the Primary Instructor Certificate of Tonya Moore shall be revoked for a period of seven years and Tonya Moore shall receive a two-year suspension of both her Paramedic License and EMT Certificate within the State of Indiana.

The effective date of the revocation and suspension shall begin on the earlier of any active suspension after the date of the Indiana Department of Homeland Security's original finding, or, in the event that such revocation and suspension have not formally begun yet, shall begin as of the date this order is signed.

II.

EFFECTIVE DATE AND APPEAL RIGHTS

All administrative actions and remedies are exhausted. Pursuant to IC 4-21.5-3-31, this Final Order will become effective thirty (30) days after the Commission has served it. Petitioner may file with the Commission a petition for a stay of effectiveness of this Final Order prior to the Final Order becoming effective. Petitioner may file with the clerk of the court a petition for judicial review of this Final Order within thirty (30) days after the date this notice of Final Order is served. To determine in which venue to file a petition see IC 4-21.5-5-6. Petitions for judicial review are governed by IC 4-21.5-5 et seq.

Any petition must set forth the minimum requirements defined in IC 4-21.5-5.7, which include setting forth specific facts to demonstrate that the petitioning party has been prejudiced by one or more grounds as described in IC 4-21.5-5-7. The burden of demonstrating the invalidity of the Commission's Final Order is on the party that asserts the Final Order was invalid. In addition to filing the petition with the clerk, the party petitioning for judicial review shall serve a copy of the petition upon: (1) the Commission (2) the administrative law judge (3) the attorney general; and (4) each party to the proceeding before the Commission. Service on the Commission may be presented in person or sent by mail to:

Indiana Department of Homeland Security
Emergency Medical Services Commission
c/o Secretary re: Appeal
302 W. Washington Street, Rm. W241
Indianapolis, IN 46204

If Petitioner has any questions regarding this Final Order, please contact the IDHS Legal Office, Kathleen Ash, by phone at (317) 234-8837 or by email at KASH@dhs.in.gov. Should you wish to discuss any substantive matters of this order you must either hire an attorney or elect to represent yourself pro se.

SO ORDERED.
