

Recommendations for shrub Lonicera- morrowii, maackii, tatarica, bella

Assessment results based on 8/7/03 meeting:

Impact (0-70.5) 70.5
 Potential for Expansion (0-40) 33
 Difficulty of Management (0-58) 37
 Value (0-29) 3 or 13

Group	Current Status	Recommendation	Need to	Who
Government
DNR	No policy against it yet; state nursery does not grow	Develop policy against it; provide educational materials to public why not to use it
INDOT
NRCS	Policy in place not to use it	Provide educational materials on why not to use it
IDEM
USFWS
ACOE
Federal landholders (DoD, USFS, USFWS, NPS)
USDA-ARS
Plant Material Centers	Not working with it	Look for alternatives and publicize those
Coop Extension Service - Forage
Coop Extension Service - Horticulture	Not being promoted to our knowledge	Provide educational materials on why not to use it
County government (SWCDs, drainage boards, surveyors)	Some may sell it as moneymaker	SWCDs need to stop selling it;work at Nat. Assoc. of Conserv. Districts level
City governments	Some may include it in planting lists	Make sure cities remove from planting lists
Nursery Professionals and Landscape Architects
	Occasional use in landscapes	Do not recommend for planting; provide information on alternatives.
Gardening Public
	Often adventive in yards; some is planted	Avoid planting, use alternatives
Botanic Gardens and Arboreta
	Found in some	Remove from plantings; provide information on invasiveness and alternatives
Other
Wild Turkey Federation	Promoting and selling for wildlife	Ask them to stop selling Arnold's Red in IN	Letter to nat'l and local WTF?	