

Recommendations for Rhamnus cathartica

Assessment results based on 8/7/03 meeting:

Impact (0-70.5) 0
 Potential for Expansion (0-40) 33
 Difficulty of Management (0-58) 26
 Value (0-29) 0

Note that R. cathartica is an alternate host for soybean aphid; R. frangula is not

Not currently recommended, planted or sold; KEEP IT THAT WAY.

Group	Current Status	Recommendation	Need to	Who
Government
DNR	Present in landscaping at Gene Stratton Porter SHS in Noble Co. and maybe other sites	Provide information on invasiveness and control measures to the public; remove from landscaping at DNR sites
INDOT
NRCS
IDEM
USFWS
ACOE
Federal landholders (DoD, USFS, USFWS, NPS)
USDA-ARS
Plant Material Centers
Coop Extension Service - Forage
Coop Extension Service - Horticulture		Provide information on invasiveness and control measures to the public
County government (SWCDs, drainage boards, surveyors)
Nursery Professionals and Landscape Architects
	Not in the trade	Provide information on invasiveness and control measures to the public
Gardening Public
Botanic Gardens and Arboreta
	There may be old plantings at a few sites	Remove from plantings; provide information on invasiveness and control measures to the public
Other				