

Recommendations for Autumn Olive and Russian Olive

Assessment results based on 4/13/04 meeting:

	Autumn Olive	Russian Olive
Impact (0-70.5)	12	0
Potential for Expansion (0-40)	31	31
Difficulty of Management (0-58)	35	0
Value (0-29)	3	3

Note - recommendations apply to both autumn olive and Russian olive

Group	Current Status	Recommendation	Need to	Who Government
DNR	We don't think DNR is recommending or planting either	Put in policy that neither species will be planted or recommended	Work with DNR on policy update
INDOT	Not planting, but have substantial pop'ns on DOT land
NRCS	Not recommended in any FOTG
IDEM	Not recommending or planting
USFWS	Not recommending or planting
ACOE	Not recommending or planting
Federal landholders (DoD, USFS, USFWS, NPS)	Not recommending or planting
USDA-ARS	Not recommending or planting
Plant Material Centers	Not working on cultivars	Update PMC nat'l publications to clarify invasiveness	Contact National PMC
Coop Extension Service - Forage	Not recommending or planting
Coop Extension Service - Horticulture	Russian olive is recommended in Hort publications; we don't think autumn olive is recommended	Do not recommend either species in publications	Contact Hort now to invite to be part of this effort - really important they be involved.
County government (SWCDs, drainage boards, surveyors)	At least Boone Co. is recommending both species be planted through their Planning Commission	Do not recommend either species be planted	Contact IN Ass'n of Counties
City governments	Not likely its planted in city landscaping but possible	Do not recommend either species be planted	Contact IN Ass'n of Cities and Towns
Nursery Professionals and Landscape Architects
	Sold for both conservation and landscaping purposes	Stop selling and recommending in designs
Gardening Public
	Being planted for both conservation and landscaping purposes	Stop planting them.
Botanic Gardens and Arboreta
	Not aware of any in gardens or arboreta	Don't use in gardens or arboreta
Other-Sportsman's Groups
WTF	May have eliminated from recommendations/selling	Check on that- make information on invasiveness available to newsletters and decision-makers
QU	Don't think they recommend	Check on that- make information on invasiveness available to newsletters and decision-makers
Whitetails Unlimited	Don't think they recommend	Check on that- make information on invasiveness available to newsletters and decision-makers		