This program receives federal aid in fish and/or wildlife restoration. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the U.S. Department of the Interior prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex or disability. If you believe you have been discriminated against in any program, activity or facility, or if you desire further information, please write to: Office of Equal Opportunity, U.S. Department of Interior, Washington, DC 20240.
FUNDING FOR FISH AND WILDLIFE
The DNR Division of Fish & Wildlife sells hunting, fishing, and trapping licenses. All revenue is used for managing fish and wildlife resources in Indiana. No license money goes into the state general fund. The Division also receives money from the federal government for wildlife management projects.

INDIANA FISH & WILDLIFE AREAS

HISTORY
Atterbury Fish & Wildlife Area, a portion of the former Camp Atterbury, was acquired by purchase in March 1969 from the Government Services Administration. The shooting range facility features a 66-position rifle/pistol range and four combination trap and skeet fields. A fee is charged. Eye and ear protection is required. Range may be closed during severe weather.

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Your purchase of hunting and fishing equipment and motorboat fuels supports Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration and boating access facilities.

RESPONSIBILITY
The DNR Division of Fish & Wildlife will not be held liable for the use of lands and facilities owned, leased or licensed by the state. The use of these facilities is at your own risk. Your purchase of hunting and fishing equipment and motorboat fuels supports Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration and boating access facilities.
