

ARCHAEOLOGY CROSSWORD

Test your skills as an archaeologist by completing the puzzle!

ACROSS

1. Archaeologists always ____ their findings!
3. Archaeologists are concerned with the ____ of the past.
4. An archaeological investigation is also called a ____.
6. An ungrooved stone axe is called a ____.
8. A collection of associated artifacts is often called a ____.
9. This animal has been kept as a pet for hundreds of years. (I bet you have one, too!)
13. A ____ is the non-portable evidence of past human behavior.
15. ____ is anthropology's way of studying the human past.
17. Most archaeology occurs in these settings. (Hint: it's not where you might think!)
19. A location of past human activity is called an archaeological ____.
21. This material was used to make a wide variety of useful items.
25. Sometimes archaeologists ____ to find evidence of the past.
26. Any object made, modified or used by humans is called an ____.
27. Many archaeologists use a ____ to dig for clues about the past.
28. A drawing of a site is called a ____.
29. Many useful objects were also made from ____.

DOWN

2. A site's permanent reference point is called the ____.
3. Archaeology studies the ____.
5. An archaeological "dig" is called an ____.
7. Sometimes archaeologists find a ____; an area where people lived.
10. Archaeologists always ____ where they find their clues.
11. Sometimes archaeologists find evidence of ____ people played.
12. Looting an archaeological site destroys its ____.
13. Archaeology can be ____!
14. A written document detailing the results of an archaeological investigation.
16. A system of shared human behavior.
18. Archaeologists often have to look through lots and lots of ____ to find their clues.
19. Archaeologists often ____ during investigations in order to recover very small clues.
20. Archaeological investigations often provide evidence of long-distance ____.
22. Archaeology can provide evidence of a person's ____.
23. A durable material used to make a variety of useful tools.
24. A popular method of producing food which is still in use today.

Learn more about archaeology:

WEB: on.IN.gov/dhpa
 FACEBOOK: www.facebook.com/INdhpa
 EMAIL: dhpa@dnr.in.gov

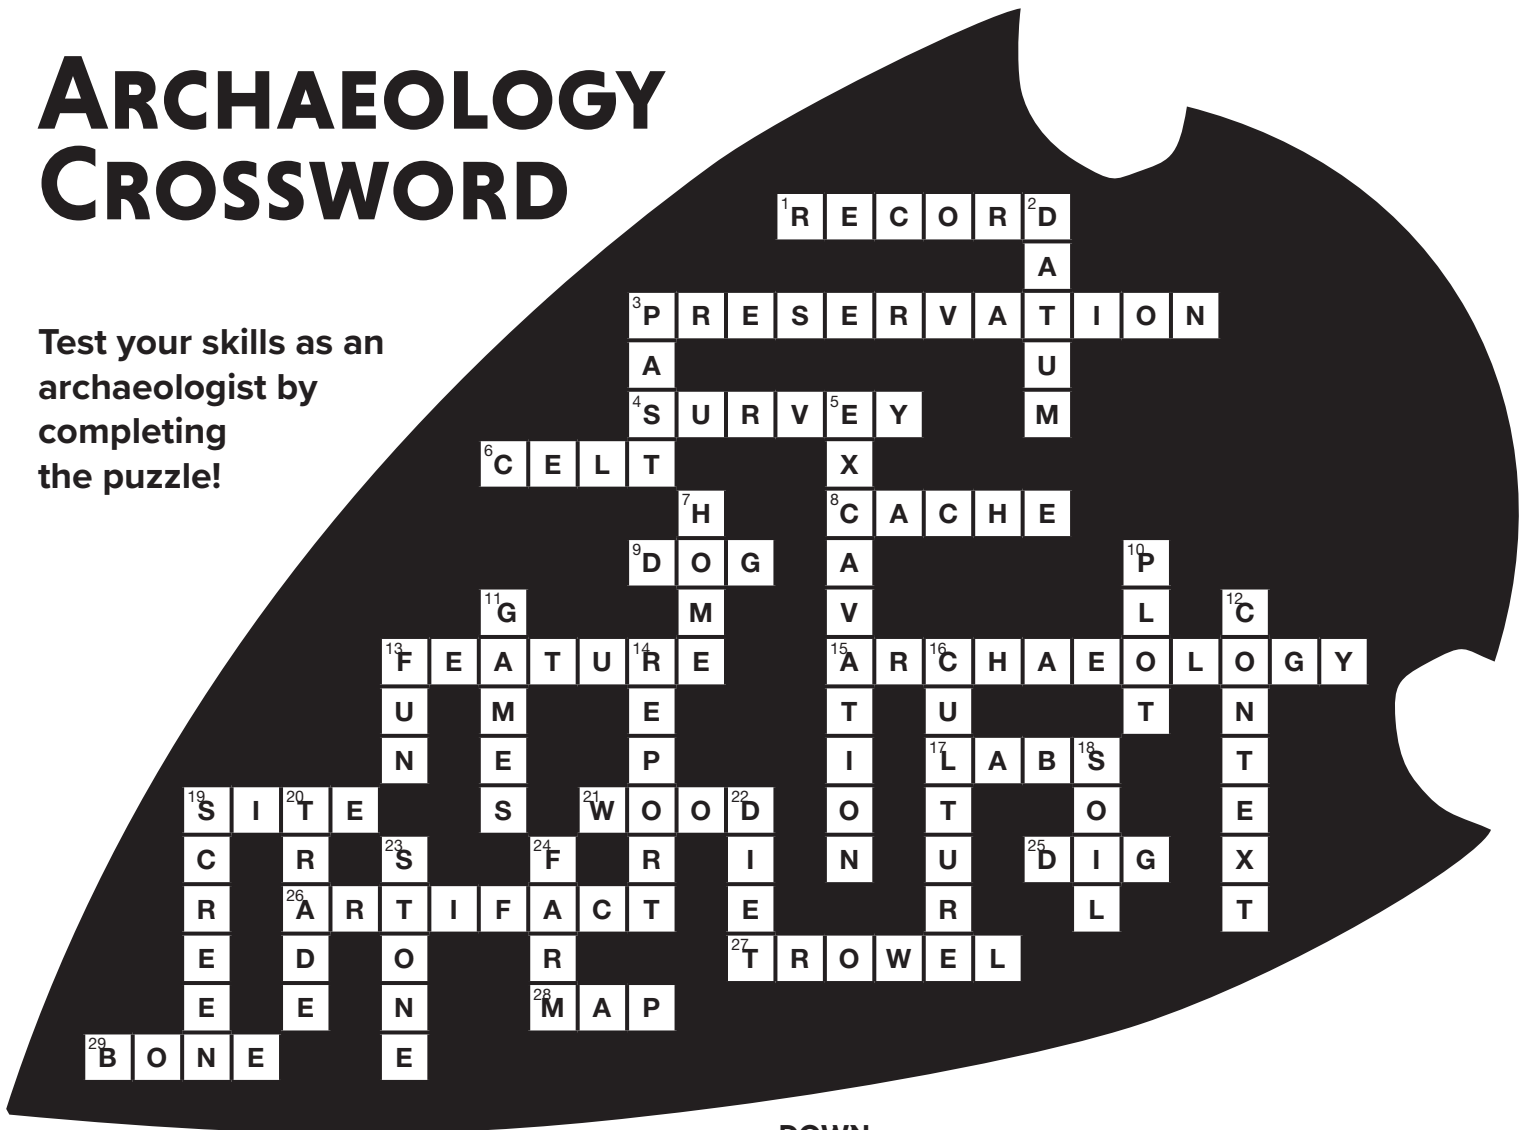

Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology
 402 W. Washington St., Rm. W274
 Indianapolis, IN 46204-2739
 PHONE: 317-232-1646

DNR
 Indiana Department of Natural Resources

ARCHAEOLOGY CROSSWORD

Test your skills as an archaeologist by completing the puzzle!

ACROSS

1. Archaeologists always ____ their findings!
3. Archaeologists are concerned with the ____ of the past.
4. An archaeological investigation is also called a ____.
6. An ungrooved stone axe is called a ____.
8. A collection of associated artifacts is often called a ____.
9. This animal has been kept as a pet for hundreds of years. (I bet you have one, too!)
13. A ____ is the non-portable evidence of past human behavior.
15. ____ is anthropology's way of studying the human past.
17. Most archaeology occurs in these settings. (Hint: it's not where you might think!)
19. A location of past human activity is called an archaeological ____.
21. This material was used to make a wide variety of useful items.
25. Sometimes archaeologists ____ to find evidence of the past.
26. Any object made, modified or used by humans is called an ____.
27. Many archaeologists use a ____ to dig for clues about the past.
28. A drawing of a site is called a ____.
29. Many useful objects were also made from ____.

DOWN

2. A site's permanent reference point is called the ____.
3. Archaeology studies the ____.
5. An archaeological "dig" is called an ____.
7. Sometimes archaeologists find a ____; an area where people lived.
10. Archaeologists always ____ where they find their clues.
11. Sometimes archaeologists find evidence of ____ people played.
12. Looting an archaeological site destroys its ____.
13. Archaeology can be ____!
14. A written document detailing the results of an archaeological investigation.
16. A system of shared human behavior.
18. Archaeologists often have to look through lots and lots of ____ to find their clues.
19. Archaeologists often ____ during investigations in order to recover very small clues.
20. Archaeological investigations often provide evidence of long-distance ____.
22. Archaeology can provide evidence of a person's ____.
23. A durable material used to make a variety of useful tools.
24. A popular method of producing food which is still in use today.

Learn more about archaeology:

WEB: on.IN.gov/dhpa
 FACEBOOK: www.facebook.com/INdhp
 EMAIL: dhpa@dnr.in.gov

Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology
 402 W. Washington St., Rm. W274
 Indianapolis, IN 46204-2739
 PHONE: 317-232-1646

DNR
 Indiana Department of Natural Resources

