Feb. 2011

- Indiana Archaeology journal- Volume 5, Number 2 of the journal Indiana Archaeology has been completed. Archaeology is happening regularly in Indiana, and this volume of the journal contains articles on a variety of interesting archaeological sites and topics. The target audience of the journal includes: the general public, professional archaeologists, avocational archaeologists, and anyone else interested in the history and prehistory of Indiana. This journal continues a tradition of scholarly research, and important contributions, in the science of archaeology. The journal is available at <http://www.in.gov/dnr/historic/3676.htm>. Work has already begun on Volume 6, Number 1.

- Archaeologist of the month- Dr. Elizabeth J. Glenn was a professor of anthropology at Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana for thirty years, retiring in 1997. She contributed much to anthropology, Native American studies, and ethnohistory in our state, and was a past member of Indiana's Native American Council. Her most recent work was the book she authored with Stewart Rafert titled The Native Americans (<http://www.indianahistory.org/feature-details/the-native-americans>). Her research interests included ethnology, archaeology, physical anthropology, ethnohistory, and North American Indians of the Great Lakes. Dr. Glenn passed away on Dec. 25, 2010 and will be missed by colleagues and her former students.

- Statewide Preservation Conference- Mark your calendars for April 6-8, 2011. The Preserving Historic Places conference will take place this year in Indianapolis. There will be a full calendar of events, including interesting sessions regarding archaeological topics. For more information, go to <http://www.in.gov/dnr/historic/4463.htm>.
- Work on SHAARD- In cooperation with the Indiana Department of Transportation, the DHPA has received funding to improve SHAARD. One aspect involves data clean-up for National Register and Archaeological files in our office. The work will include adding new records, verifying existing records, and scanning site forms, maps, and supporting documentation to the records in SHAARD. The National Register files for the entire state will be addressed this year, and the site forms for the following counties will be addressed this year for Archaeology – Bartholomew, Brown, Clark, Crawford, Dearborn, Decatur, Dubois, Floyd, Franklin, Greene, Harrison, Jackson, Jefferson, Jennings, Knox, Lawrence, Ohio, Orange, Perry, Ripley, Scott, Spencer, Switzerland, and Washington.

If you are going to be working in one of these counties, please verify with Cathy Carson (ccarson@dnr.IN.gov; 317/234-5254) when scheduling your records check that the information you will need will be available at the time of your appointment. If you have other questions, feel free to contact Karie Brudis at kbrudis@dnr.IN.gov or 317/233-8941.

This information is distributed via email by the Indiana Department of Natural Resources, Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (DHPA). This is meant to provide information on current archaeological topics and issues in which the DHPA is involved. An archive of past Archaeology News issues is available at <http://www.in.gov/dnr/historic/3673.htm>. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact our office at 317/232-1646.
