

George Rogers Clark and his brave men faced many obstacles such as the terrible weather, lack of food, and more to make it to Vincennes to capture Fort Sackville. See if you can overcome the obstacles of this maze!

 Archaeologists dig in units that are square like the maze. Archaeologists look for clues of many types in the units. Just like it is a challenge to make your way out of the maze, archaeologists are challenged by piecing together the puzzle of the past.
