A mooring area is provided for boats, but it is not adjacent to sewage, water and electric hookups. Occupancy is limited to 14 consecutive hours from Memorial Day through Labor Day. A "First-come, first-served" basis, or reserved through the Corps of Engineers Office.

CAMPING—Miami SRA has modern campgrounds for both motorized and non-motorized watercraft areas in season. No hunting is permitted within areas during May and into October.

FISHING—Many varieties of fish can be caught in the lake from the LaFontaine car top access to the modern beachhouse provides showers, changing area, restrooms and concession area. Shelter house, picnic and one shelter in the Frances Slocum SRA. Reservations can be made online or by calling toll-free.

HUNTING—All hunters are required by law to sign in at a hunter sign-in station and to return a hunting license to a hunter sign-in station. Hunting is allowed in designated wildlife areas in season. No hunting is permitted within areas marked as safety zones, seasonal refuges or restricted areas. Hunters are not required to sign in out of the Corps hunting area.

INTERPRETIVE NATURALIST SERVICE—Programs are presented in the summer at the Miami modern campground. Program schedules are available at the Miami SRA office or (260) 473-5946. Call: 1-877 -lodges1 (1-877 -563-4371)

BOAT RAMPS—Each of the four state recreation areas has a concrete boat ramp. There are six car top access sites located in the resource management areas has a concrete boat ramp. There are six car top access sites located in the resource management areas in season. Boat ramps have a self-guided brochure is available at the property office.

BOAT RAMPS—Each of the four state recreation areas has a concrete boat ramp. There are six car top access sites located in the resource management areas in season. Boat ramps have a self-guided brochure is available at the property office.

BOAT RAMPS—Each of the four state recreation areas has a concrete boat ramp. There are six car top access sites located in the resource management areas in season. Boat ramps have a self-guided brochure is available at the property office.

BOAT RAMPS—Each of the four state recreation areas has a concrete boat ramp. There are six car top access sites located in the resource management areas in season. Boat ramps have a self-guided brochure is available at the property office.