For a complete list of rules and regulations, inquire at park office.

• Fishing, hunting, trapping, wildlife watching

Snowmobiles are prohibited.

All motorized vehicles shall remain on paved roadway.

Drinking water should be taken only from pumps, hydrants or fountains provided for that purpose. This means that water is treated to meet the drinking water standards of USEPA and Indiana law.

Swimming is limited to places and times designated by management.

Please comply with the Carry In/Carry Out trash policy.

Unloaded or un-nocked and stored in a case or locked is the state law for all Archery. This means that archery may be brought to the park, unloaded, and stored in a locked case.

Do not injure or damage any structure, rock, tree, flower, grass, or historic object on public land.

No pets

Camping is permitted in the park.

Wildfire prevention regulations are in effect.

Reservations for all types of camping, family campgrounds, state lakes, river campgrounds, and forests can be made online or by calling toll-free.

For more information, see Online: stateparks.IN.gov.

Special Note

Reciprocal camping privileges do not apply to state parks.

Visit Subscribe to Outdoor Indiana magazine today, to keep up with the latest outdoor news and activities in Indiana.

The programs, services, facilities, and activities of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources are designed to provide for the public’s use and enjoyment.

The programs, services, facilities, and activities of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources are designed to preserve a primitive landscape in its natural condition for the public’s use and enjoyment.

This blend of wetlands, prairies and forests reflects Potato Creek’s varied natural communities also.

The nature preserve also has several unusual plants and animals, such as the Northern Brown Snake, a species of sand snake which is a favored location for beavers.

This means that archery may be brought to the park, unloaded, and stored in a locked case.

For a complete list of rules and regulations, inquire at park office.

Special Note

Reciprocal camping privileges do not apply to state parks.

Visit Subscribe to Outdoor Indiana magazine today, to keep up with the latest outdoor news and activities in Indiana.

The programs, services, facilities, and activities of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources are designed to preserve a primitive landscape in its natural condition for the public’s use and enjoyment.

The programs, services, facilities, and activities of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources are designed to preserve a primitive landscape in its natural condition for the public’s use and enjoyment.