Come join us as we have fun and celebrate Archaeology Weekend!

We have many fun and exciting programs planned for this weekend of summer!

Saturday, Aug. 21st:

10:00 a.m. Creek Walk
Take a hike with us to see if we can find any fossils!
2 hours; Whitewater Memorial State Park Naturalist Cabin

1:00 p.m. Make Your Own Fossils!
Learn an interesting and simple way to create your own fossils!
1/2 hour; Mounds S.R.A. Camp Store

2:00 p.m. “Crack Open” a Mystery!
Practice your archaeology skills by using tools to discover what is hidden in some interesting rocks!
1/2 hour; Quakertown S.R.A. Campground Playground

3:30 p.m. Dinosaur Egg Hunt!
Have lots of fun as we look for “dinosaur eggs!”
1/2 hour; Whitewater Memorial State Park Naturalist Cabin (We will be taking the eggs back, but kids can keep goodies inside).

6:00 p.m. Hayrides with Cowboy Dave
Join Cowboy Dave for an evening of family fun! Come by the Saddle Barn and enjoy music and hayrides!
Fun for all ages!
30 min per ride; $3 per person Whitewater Memorial State Park Saddle barn (register prior to Saturday night)

7:00 p.m. Tractor pulled Hayrides with Jim
Join Jim and his crew for a family fun Hayride around Mounds Campground. $3.00 per person per hayride. Please pre-register at the Mounds S.R.A. Camp Store.
2 hours Mounds S.R.A. Camp Store

Sunday, Aug. 22nd:

1:00 p.m. Cabin Open
Check out our cabin and see what kind of things we have inside!
1 hour; Whitewater Memorial State Park Naturalist Cabin

2:00 p.m. Lend a Helping Hand
Look for the Naturalists around your campground! They want to thank you for visiting with us!
2 hours; all properties campgrounds

Interpretive Naturalist: Julie Scaggs and Tracy Havens

For more information you can call the property offices:

Whitewater Memorial State Park office- (765) 458-5565.

Programs are free of charge except entrance fees. All children under 10 must be accompanied by an adult. Car pass receipt allows entrance into our three areas: Mounds State Recreation Area, Quakertown State Recreation Area, and Whitewater Memorial State Park.

Join in on the good times...through our programs. Great fun and memories to last a lifetime!