Please stay on marked trails.

Please let wild animals remain wild. Feeding wildlife is prohibited. Feeding of wild animals can result in harm to both animals and people. Animals who depend on human hands become a danger to themselves. Please lock up all food and coolers inside cars or campers. Roll up windows tightly.

Brown County State Park is the largest Indiana State Park. This nationally known, 15,815-acre facility opened in 1929. In the first few years, the park grew in popularity, several facilities were developed, including Abe Martin Lodge, several cabins and Ogle Lake. The roads, entrances, and many trails were added or improved.

On June 1, 1933, the Works Progress Administration (WPA) and the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) began many trails were added or improved.
