

Indiana Department of Education

Dr. Katie Jenner, Secretary of Education

Danville Community School Corporation and the Indiana School Safety Specialist Academy Present:

"High In Plain Sight: Drug Trends And Identification"

Presented by:

Jermaine Galloway, the Tall Cop Says Stop

At 6 feet 9 inches tall, Officer Jermaine Galloway looks like an intimidating presence, but he is devoted and passionate about education, training, and enforcement when it comes to alcohol and drug use and abuse prevention. Officer Galloway is a nationally and internationally recognized instructor and is well known for his countless hours of research on alcohol and drug trends. Officer Jermaine Galloway has been an Idaho law enforcement officer since 1997 and has more than 14 years of experience in underage drinking, drug and alcohol enforcement. Officer Galloway has worked several different assignments, including: crime scene investigation (CSI), DUI task force, officer mentoring, and as a field training officer. Jermaine has coordinated and led thousands of alcohol related initiatives. Jermaine is also an Idaho POST certified instructor in alcohol beverage laws, drug identification, community policing and hate & bias crimes. He currently provides training nationwide to educators and law enforcement on alcohol and drug trends, drug identifiers, drug clothing, party patrols, party drugs, Fake ID's, drug concealment, alcohol and energy drinks, drug logos, synthetic drugs, drug concentrates, non-traditional ways of alcohol consumption, cough medicine abuse, alcohol laws, drug stash compartments, popular culture music, and other community based alcohol and drug initiatives.

Topics to Be Covered Include:

- Drug trends amongst youth, including local trends based on sales/availability
- Drug concentrates and designer drug use
- Prevalence and identification of e-devices
- Drug clothing and identifiers
- Popular culture impact on drug trends
