An Update From the Indiana Department of Education for November 22,

Indiana Department of Education sent this bulletin at 11/22/2024 07:00 AM EST

Indiana Department of Education

Dr. Katie Jenner, Secretary of Education

A Message from Dr. Katie Jenner

Since many of us will have time off next week for Thanksgiving break, this will be our last newsletter until December. So today, I wanted to take a moment to reflect on the Thanksgiving holiday and share how thankful I am for each and every one of you.

Over the years, Thanksgiving has become my favorite holiday. Yes, I do enjoy many of the other holidays too (I love a good celebration and family time); Thanksgiving has just become more special over the years. Probably like your family, we have some annual traditions.

Thanksgiving morning, people wake up or arrive at the host's house at different times. Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade is always playing in the background...until the football games begin! Every year we do a family walk or run (we call it our "Turkey Trot"), before we begin cooking for our evening Thanksgiving dinner.

To this day, my family goes shopping on Friday (yes, even though online shopping is more convenient!). We also have a newer tradition of playing a family game of Twister...imagine a competitive bracket of Indiana high school basketball, except with family members of all ages fighting to win the Twister championship. Very humbly, I won the family Twister championship last year (I know you're probably laughing right now...you should be, it was a sight! Ha!). My cousin's elementary school age children who live in Alabama have already sent me videos about how THEY will be the Twister Champion this year...but little do they know, I'm already getting my stretches in and will be prepared to defend my Twister title!

Finally, on Saturday we'll be heading to the IU vs. Purdue football game. This is an old Indiana tradition with a new twist this year since we have a very fun-to-watch IU team. I'm sure I'll run into some of you there! (For all of the Boilermaker fans reading this, remember I shouted you out too during last year's basketball season!).

Thanksgiving is all about spending time with family and friends, but also taking some quiet time to reflect and count our blessings. For me, those blessings absolutely include each of you. Thank you for your continued collaboration and friendship, and of course, for all that you do for Indiana students.

Whatever your family traditions are (old or new), I hope that you take some time next week to look around, put your phone down, and enjoy the memories you're making with the people you love. Happy Thanksgiving!

The next edition of Dr. Jenner's Weekly Update will be sent on Friday, December 6.
