

The Allen County School Safety Commission and the Indiana School Safety Specialist Academy Present:

“The Reid Technique of Interviewing and Interrogation”

Presented by:

Joseph P. Buckley III, president of John E. Reid and Associates, forensic interviewer, detection of deception examiner, lecturer, and consultant

Training Overview

Participants will review three primary topics that can be essential for school administrators, school safety specialists, and law enforcement:

1. Behavior Symptom Analysis - review the verbal and nonverbal behavior symptoms that are displayed by a person who is telling the truth as well as those displayed by a person who is withholding relevant information.
2. Behavior Analysis Interview - review how to phrase and ask behavior-provoking questions, and describe the type of answers to anticipate from truthful and deceptive individuals.
3. Reid Nine Steps of Interrogation - review the interrogation process, beginning with how to initiate the confrontation, develop the interrogational theme, stop denials, overcome objections, and use the alternative question to stimulate the admission.
