6th Grade Social Studies Standards

With the Indiana State Board of Education's (SBOE) approval of a middle school civics course for the second semester of the grade six year, it was determined that some grade six geography standards could be taught at grade seven and eight to alleviate the number of standards at grade six. Please note that eight geography standards have been removed from grade six, bringing the total geography standards from 14 down to six.

History

Standard 1: Students explore the key historic movements, events, and figures that contributed to the development of modern Europe and America from early civilizations through modern times by examining religious institutions, trade and cultural interactions, political institutions, and technological developments.

	Early and Classical Civilizations: 1900 BCE to 700 CE
6.1.1	 Summarize the rise, decline, and cultural achievements of ancient civilizations in Europe and Mesoamerica. Examples: Greek, Roman, Mayan, Incan, and Aztec.
6.1.2	 Describe and compare the beliefs, the spread and the influence of religions throughout Europe and Mesoamerica. Examples: Judaism, Christianity, Islam, native practices in Mesoamerica and Europe.
	Medieval Period: 400 AD/CE - 1500 AD/CE

Geography

Standard 3: Students identify the characteristics of climate regions in Europe and the Americas and describe major physical features, countries and cities of Europe, and the Western Hemisphere.

World in Spatial Terms

6.3.1	Demonstrate a broad understanding of the countries and capitals of Europe and the Americas.
Places and Regions

6.3.2	Describe and compare major cultural characteristics of regions in Europe and the Western Hemisphere.
	• Examples: Language, religion, recreation, clothing, diet, music/dance, family structure, and traditions.
	Physical Systems
6.3.3	Give examples and describe the formation of important river deltas, mountains and bodies of water in Europe and the Americas.
	• Examples: Volga River, Canadian Rockies, Sierra Madre Mountains, and Lochs in Scotland.
6.3.4	Locate and describe the climate regions of Europe and the Americas and explain how and why they differ.
	• Examples: Gulf Stream and North Atlantic Current (NAC).
6.3.5	Describe and compare major physical characteristics of regions (biomes) of Europe and the Americas.
	• Examples: Rainforests, mountain ranges, rivers, woodlands, deserts.
Human Systems
6.3.6	Identify current patterns of population distribution and growth in Europe and the Americas using a variety of geographic representations such as maps, charts, graphs, and satellite images and aerial photography. Evaluate how different push and pull factors trigger migrations.
	• Examples: Rural and urban areas; immigration.

Economics

Standard 4: Students examine the influence of physical and cultural factors upon the economic systems of countries in Europe and the Americas.
6.4.1	 Give examples of how trade related to key developments in the history of Europe and the Americas. Examples: The growth of trading towns and cities in medieval Europe led to money economies, competition to expand world trade led to European voyages of trade and exploration, and Mayan trade in Mesoamerica led to colonization and the diffusion of art.
6.4.2	Analyze how countries of Europe and the Americas have been influenced by trade in different historical periods.
	• Examples: Increased production and consumption and lower prices.
6.4.3	Explain why international trade requires a system for exchanging currency between various countries.
6.4.4	Describe how different economic systems (traditional, command, market, and mixed) in Europe and the Americas answer the basic economic questions on what to produce, how to produce, and for whom to produce.
6.4.5	Compare the standard of living of various countries of Europe and the Americas today using Gross Domestic Product (GDP) per capita as an indicator.
6.4.6	Analyze current economic issues in the countries of Europe or the Americas using a variety of information resources.
	• Examples: Use information sources such as digital newspapers, the internet, and podcasts to examine changes in energy prices and consumption, exchange rates, and currency values.
6.4.7	Identify economic connections between the local community and the countries of Europe and the Americas, and identify job skills needed to be successful in the workplace.

6.4.8	 Define how European and American countries utilize a welfare state system, and identify ways that societies engage with helpful and harmful externalities in Europe and the Americas. Examples: Government support of public education and governments taxing or regulating pollution.
6.4.9	 Explain how saving and investing help increase productivity and economic growth and compare and contrast individual saving and investing options. Examples: Savings accounts, certificates of deposit (CDs), and stocks.
