4.4.1 Give examples of the kinds of goods* and services* produced in Indiana in different historical periods.

* goods: tangible objects, such as food or toys, that can satisfy people's wants and needs

* services: actions that someone does for someone else, such as dental care or trash removal

4.4.2 Define productivity* and provide examples of how productivity has changed in Indiana during the past 100 years.

Examples: Improved farm equipment has helped farms produce more. Technology has helped businesses run more efficiently. Improved education has provided individuals with the knowledge and skills to run businesses and work more productively.

* productivity: the amount of goods and services produced in a period of time divided by the productive resources used

4.4.3 Explain how both parties can benefit from trade* and give examples of how people in Indiana engaged in trade in different time periods.

* trade: the voluntary exchange of goods or services

4.4.4 Explain that prices change as a result of changes in supply* and demand* for specific products.

* supply: what producers are willing and able to sell at various prices

- * demand: what consumers are willing and able to buy at various prices

4.4.5 Describe Indiana's global connections.

Examples: Identify international companies in Indiana, such as Toyota, Chrysler (Fiat), Honda, Roche Diagnostics, and Indiana companies that have an international presence such as Biomet, Eli Lilly and Cummins Engine.

4.4.6 List the functions of money* and compare and contrast things that have been used as money in the past in Indiana, the United States and the world.

- * functions of money: helps people trade, measures the value of items, facilitates saving

Resources

- The Changing Face of Money In this lesson, students play a game to guess which objects have been used as money throughout history. In the process, they learn several basic economic concepts. For instance, money must be a unit of account, meaning that it must be able to break down into smaller pieces that equate with the goods or services desired.
- Bill, Are you Bogus? In a barter system, people have to trade goods and services for other goods and services. In an economy that produces millions of goods and services, barter is very difficult. Think of all the stuff (goods and services) you have.
- Deceptive Advertising: Crossing the Line In this lesson, students examine the ground rules for advertisements of goods and services, why we need rules, who sets them, and who enforces them. They research cases in which, deceptive advertising has been charged and analyze whether the negative incentives for this illegal practice are sufficient to deter future violations.
- Satisfaction Please! \(Part 3\) The focus of this lesson is what to do when a consumer is unable to get a problem resolved with a seller. A variety of options are presented in both the public and private arena. Students must select sources of outside help that would be appropriate in hypothetical situations they are given.
- U.S. farmers and the Cuban embargo This lesson explores trade barriers in general and why some U.S. farmers want one specific trade barrier, the Cuban embargo, completely eliminated.
- What is Money? To provide learning experiences that will encourage the student to discover and be challenged in learning, and become acquainted with money. Includes lesson worksheet and play store activity.

4.4.7 Identify entrepreneurs* who have influenced Indiana and the local community.

Examples: The Studebaker brothers, Madam C.J. Walker, Eli Lilly and Marie Webster

- * entrepreneur: a person who takes a risk to start a business

4.4.8 Define profit* and describe how profit is an incentive for entrepreneurs.

- * profit: revenues from selling a good or service minus the costs of producing the good or service

Resources

- Bill, Are you Bogus? In a barter system, people have to trade goods and services for other goods and services. In an economy that produces millions of goods and services, barter is very difficult. Think of all the stuff (goods and services) you have.

4.4.9 Identify important goods and services provided by state and local governments by giving examples of how state and local tax revenues are used.

4.4.10 Explain how people save, develop a savings plan, and create a budget in order to make a future purchase.

Resources

GUIDE TO HISTORIC SITES IN INDIANA

421 W. Ohio St.
Indianapolis, IN 46202

Project 9/11 Indianapolis was begun early in 2010 as a grass roots effort to establish a permanent memorial dedicated to those killed in the September 11 attacks. The focal point of the memorial consists of two 11,000-pound (5,000 kg) beams from the Twin Towers. Behind the beams stand a pair of six-foot tall black granite walls inscribed with remembrances of the events in New York City; Washington, D.C.; and Shanksville, Pennsylvania. Perched atop one of the beams is a bronze, life-size sculpture of an American Bald Eagle, with wings outstretched and gazing east toward New York City

[American Legion
Mall](#)

N. Pennsylvania St.
Indianapolis, IN 46204

The American Legion Mall (ALM) extends from St. Clair Street to North Street between Meridian and Pennsylvania Streets. On the east side is the American Legion National headquarters, and on the west side is the headquarters of the American Legion's Department of Indiana. Looking to the south from St. Clair Street, the visitor sees the solemn grounds of the Cenotaph in the foreground. The Cenotaph memorializes the nation's first casualty of World War I, Corporal James B. Gresham of Company F, 16th Infantry and Evansville Indiana. In the background rise the World War II, Korean, and Vietnam memorials on the flanks with Veteran's Plaza and the World War Memorial anchoring the vista at its southern end.
