Course Description:

This course is designed to prepare students for success on college entrance exams, including the PSAT, SAT, and Graduation Qualifying Exams. Students will strengthen essential academic skills in reading comprehension, writing, and math reasoning, while also developing strategies for managing time, reducing test anxiety, and approaching various question types with confidence. In addition to test preparation, the course introduces foundational research skills, such as evaluating sources and analyzing arguments, to support students in college-level coursework and beyond. Through a mix of practice tests, targeted lessons, and practical activities, students will gain the tools they need to approach standardized assessments with clarity and readiness.
