FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Indianapolis Cintas Facility Certified ‘STAR’ in Workplace Safety and Health

INDIANAPOLIS (April 18, 2016) – Cintas Corporation Location 18, located in Indianapolis, Indiana, achieved certification in the Indiana Voluntary Protection Program (VPP) as a ‘STAR’ site. The site and its hardworking staff join a handful of other Cintas locations across the country recognized as leaders in workplace safety and health.

Cintas Corporation Location 18, which houses over 100 partners (employees), is part of the Cintas Corporation. The facility supplies rental uniforms, entrance mats, restroom and hygiene supplies, first aid services, and promotional products for businesses in the central Indiana area. The company’s Location 18 Indianapolis facility is one of Cintas’s 377 sites in the United States, with 38 of the sites being VPP ‘STAR’ sites.

“Without a doubt, the Cintas Corporation is an example of excellence in proactive safety and health,” said Indiana Department of Labor (IDOL) Commissioner Rick J. Ruble. “Management and staff are enthusiastic about a hazard-free workplace and make training and injury and illness prevention programs a top priority.”

Cintas Corporation’s Location 18 in Indianapolis has a recordable workplace injury and illness rate 80 percent below the industry average.

About the Indiana Department of Labor:

The mission of the Indiana Department of Labor is to advance the safety, health and prosperity of Hoosiers in the workplace.
