SUBJECT: Worksite Added Penalty Signs Law Change

The purpose of this memorandum is to provide direction to field personnel in regards to Worksite Added Penalty Signs placed on a jobsite. In 2014, the Worksite Added Penalty Signs was changed by law for the "Reckless Driving" penalty of "Max 8 Years" to "Max 6 Years". This change has been reflected on the Recurring Plan Details, 801-R-622d, effective for lettings on or after September 01, 2015 and can be found at <http://www.in.gov/dot/div/contracts/standards/rsp/sep15/800/801-R-622d%20150901.pdf>

Any contracts let before September 1, 2015 will have the old standard in the CIB for Worksite Added Penalty Signs claiming a "Max 8 Years" for Reckless Driving. The contractor can either add a plaque over the "8" with a "6" or fabricate a new sign with the correct message. If the Contractor chooses to fabricate a new sign, a change order will be executed immediately for payment.

Any questions should be directed to your Construction Management Field Engineer.
