

YOUR GUIDE TO COMPLETING VA'S PRE-NEED BURIAL ELIGIBILITY APPLICATION

Veterans and spouses who want to be buried in a VA national cemetery can apply to find out in advance if they are eligible. This is called a pre-need determination of eligibility—and it can help make the burial planning process easier for your family at time of need.

Follow this guide to help you complete the pre-need burial eligibility application.

How to prepare before starting your application

Gather the information you'll need to apply:

- » Your personal information, including Social Security number and date of birth
- » Your military history or the military history of the Veteran

Gather supporting documents

To help process your application faster, you can provide a copy of your DD214 or other separation documents (or the DD214 of the Veteran). If you don't provide a DD214, VA will try to find the records needed to determine eligibility.

Benefits for Veterans at a VA national cemetery:
