Top-Rated System

In the U.S. Department of Labor's "Tools for America's Job Seekers Challenge" conducted in January 2010, Journey placed sixth overall, and received the highest number of recommendations as a Web-Based Career Exploration Site among the 78 products in its category.

Easy Step-by-Step Process

Users may complete the following steps in order or select the one that meets their immediate needs.

Step 1: Assessments

The career planning process starts with learning about oneself. Journey's research-based interests, skills, and work values assessments kick-start career exploration and ultimately encourage more satisfaction and success.

Step 2: Occupations

If users are looking to transfer skills to another job, find a job related to their college major, or simply start the search from scratch, Journey allows them to search and narrow down a list of occupations that are right for them.

Step 3: Education & Financial Aid

Users can align careers of interest with related educational or training requirements to determine a future path and learn about financial aid.

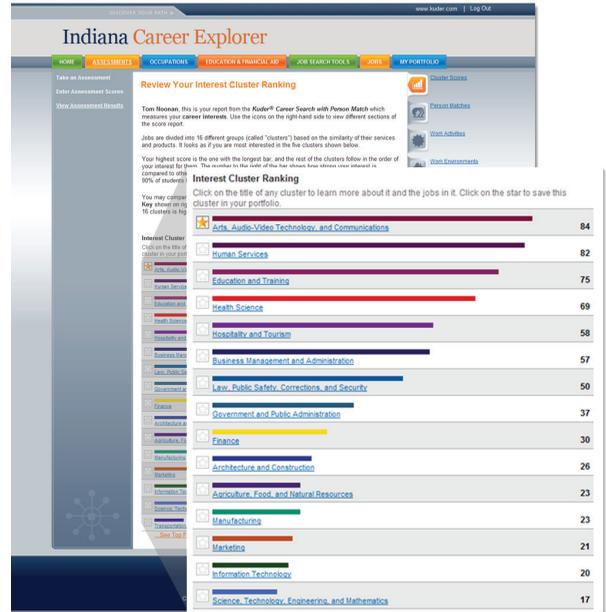

Step 4: Job Search Tools

Planning and preparation are critical before applying for that next career. Journey provides the tools to create a résumé, write a cover letter, collect references, and update interviewing skills.

Step 5: Jobs

Once a person has effectively learned about their options and prepared for opportunities, the next step is finding a job. Journey offers a number of ways to research employers, find local companies, and locate available jobs using www.indianacareerconnect.com.
