646 IAC 5-2-6 Merit rate process

Authority: IC 22-4-18-1; IC 22-4.1-3-3 Affected: IC 22-4; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 6. (a) Merit rate calculations begin with the allocation of the pool account to employers. Employers are notified of the mutualized benefit charges on the annual merit rate notice. Mutualized benefit charges are nonprotestable.

(b) Any employer with outstanding liabilities, missing quarterly wage and employment reports, or outstanding predecessor liabilities is sent a nonprotestable merit rate delinquency notice. This notification provides the employer an opportunity to avoid being assigned a penalty rate for the next calendar year by making the payments due, or by submitting the missing reports, within ten (10) days of the date the notice was sent by the department.

(c) A merit rate notice is sent to each employer no later than March 30 of the rate year. This notice provides the employer with:

- (1) its experience balance;
- (2) its prior three (3) fiscal years of taxable payroll;
- (3) a voluntary payment offer if eligible; and
- (4) any requirements that have not been met.

An employer who has not met the listed requirements, or whose account is at the lowest available rate, is not eligible for a voluntary buy down. An employer has the right to protest its merit rate notice. The protest must be filed within fifteen (15) days of the date the notice was sent by the department. The protest right is limited to whether the employer's contribution rate was calculated correctly and does not extend to department determinations that were independently protestable when issued. 646 IAC 5-2-7 Transfers of Indiana operations

Authority: IC 22-4-18-1; IC 22-4.1-3-3

Affected: IC 22-4; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 7. (a) An employing unit, whether or not an employer at the time of transfer, that:

(1) acquires all or a portion of an employer's trade or business (including the employer's workforce), which results in the continuance of an organization, trade, or business; or immediately qualifies as a covered employer under $\underline{IC 22-4}$ and assumes the position of the predecessor with respect to all the resources and liabilities of the predecessor's experience account. The successor/acquirer must complete all reports via Employer Self Service or the current state form approved for such reporting. The predecessor/disposer must complete all reports via Employer Self Service or the current state form approved for such reporting. These reports must be filed by the earlier of thirty (30) days from the dispositions date or ten (10) days from a request for information by the department.

(2) merges, incorporates, or reorganizes the employing unit's business;

- (b) An employing unit, whether or not an employer at the time of transfer, that:
- (1) acquires a distinct and segregable portion of an organization, trade, or business; and
- (2) retains assets, which may include the workforce or employees, or both, of that business;

shall be entitled to consider the wages reported by the predecessor/disposer when computing the tax base per employee, per calendar year. The predecessor/disposer must transfer a proportionate portion of its experience balance, and the merit rate, to the successor/acquirer. This must be done by the earlier of thirty (30) days from the date of disposition or not later than ten (10) days after notification from the department. The employers must complete all reports in the manner and form prescribed by the department. Failure to complete the required forms shall result in the department making an independent determination with regard to the percentage of the transfer of the disposer's experience balance to the acquirer's experience balance. Affected: IC 22-4-11-2; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 8. (a) If a city or town had previously been a covered employer to the extent of its municipal utilities, the utilities will pay contributions at their computed rate, but the rate will not exceed the prescribed rate under $\frac{IC 22-4-11-2}{C}(c)$.

(b) If, by statute, a municipal utility is set apart as a separate political subdivision, such utility will retain its experience account and assigned rate, and IC 22-4-11-2(d) will apply to the new account assigned to the city or town for the purpose of reporting nonutility employment. Sec. 9. (a) The department may accelerate contribution payments under $\underline{IC 22-4-10-1}(a)$. When the department determines that contribution payments should be accelerated under the conditions set forth by statute, each subject employer will be notified not fewer than thirty (30) days prior to the date the accelerated contribution is due.

(b) The employer:

(1) will estimate the amount of the accelerated contribution payment based upon its projection of its estimated payroll for the accelerated quarter; and

(2) must remit that amount in whole or in a percentage of the whole as determined by the department.

(c) Any amount of the estimated accelerated payment that exceeds the amount of contribution actually owed by the employer for the quarter to which the acceleration applies will be applied as a credit against that employer's future liability.

(d) If the amount of the estimated accelerated contribution remitted is less than the contribution actually owed by the employer for the accelerated quarter, the difference between the estimated contribution paid and the actual contribution owed must be paid at the time the contribution would normally be due for the accelerated quarter.

(e) All enforcement procedures that apply to regular contributions, including the interest and penalty provisions of IC 22-4-29-1, will apply to accelerated contributions. The recalculation must be made not later than four (4) completed calendar years subsequent to the date that the contributions, penalties, or interest would have become due, except that this limitation shall not apply to any contributions, penalty, or interest that should have been paid with respect to any incorrect report filed with the department which report was known or should have been known to be incorrect by the employing unit. Sec. 12. (a) Actual amounts advanced or reimbursed to employees for traveling expenses, which are expenses of the employer incurred by the employee in connection with the employee's position and the business of the employer, are not wages.

(b) Where an employee is allowed a drawing account against which earned commissions are credited, and the commissions earned do not equal the amounts withdrawn, and the employee is required to account to the employer for amounts overdrawn, the commissions earned, and not the amounts overdrawn, are wages subject to contribution. However, if the employee is not required to account to the employee for the amounts overdrawn, all amounts advanced to the employee are wages.

(c) In determining contributions due for a quarter, each employee is to be considered individually, and, if the expenses of an employee exceed earnings, the excess may not be credited against the contribution liability incurred by the employer by reason of wages payable to other employees of that employer.

(d) If an employee earns wages in excess of expenses in one (1) calendar quarter, contributions are due and payable on the wages. If the same employee, in a subsequent calendar quarter, incurs expenses in excess of wages, the excess shall not be taken as a credit against contributions due for a previous calendar quarter, or contributions in future months or calendar quarters, respectively. (b) For purposes of this subsection, "normal customarily scheduled hours" means the hours to which the claimant has agreed to work. Any reduction in hours that regularly occurs as a matter of practice, policy, or procedure of which the claimant was aware and to which the claimant has agreed will not be considered partial or part-total unemployment.

However, no benefit or waiting period weeks may be accumulated during that period, unless the individual terminates the leave of absence by notifying the employer and becomes available for work.

(b) A voluntary leave of absence granted to an individual by an employer pursuant to the employer's rule or pursuant to terms of a collective bargaining agreement shall be deemed terminated on the day when the individual again becomes mentally and physically able to work and available for work and establishes the individual's ability to work and availability for work. (1) conduct was severe and pervasive;

(2) conduct:

(A) was motivated by the claimant's:

(i) race;

(ii) age;

(iii) sex;

(iv) national origin; or

(v) religious beliefs;

or other status protected by law;

(B) endangered the claimant's physical safety; or

(1) discharge was imminent; and

(2) imminent discharge would not have been for just cause.

(c) If an employer gives an employee the opportunity to submit a resignation from employment, rather than be discharged, and the employee resigns, this is a quit in lieu of discharge, and the separation will be analyzed under the discharge for just cause criteria, as the employer is the moving party in the separation. (1) reasonably connected to the work;

(2) reasonably owed to the employer by the employee; and

(3) of such a nature that a reasonable employee would recognize a violation of the duty, and would understand that such a violation of the duty would subject the individual to discharge.

(b) A breach of duty reasonably owed to an employer includes, but is not limited to, conduct which establishes that the claimant:

(1) damaged the employer's trust and confidence in the claimant's ability to effectively perform the job;

(2) willfully failed to meet the employer's reasonable expectation;

(3) chose a course of action that the claimant knew, or should have known, would negatively impact the employer's financial

However, the department is not bound to follow this order of preference.

(c) Whenever there is more than one (1) legal heir in any of the classes established in subsection (b), payment may be made to any one (1) of that group as agent for the others upon submission of proper evidence of authority and identification.

(d) Application for payment of such benefits must be made in writing and on the prescribed form within six (6) months after the death of the decedent provided that the department, upon good cause shown, may extend the time for filing.

(e) Under $\underline{\text{IC } 22-4-17-2}$, in cases where the claimant's benefit eligibility, or disqualification, is disputed, the department shall promptly notify the claimant and the employer, or employers, directly involved with the issue or issues raised, and the determination will set forth the appeal rights of the party receiving the adverse determination. Sec. 24. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all hearings scheduled before an administrative law judge, or the review board, shall be set as telephone hearings, in which all parties to the appeal shall participate by telephone.

(b) Once an administrative law judge hearing is scheduled by telephone, a party to the appeal has the right to:

(1) object to telephone participation; and

(2) be allowed to participate in the hearing in person.

Such an objection must be filed with the administrative law judge assigned to the case not later than three (3) days prior to the scheduled hearing date. A revised notice of hearing will then be sent to the parties, changing the type of hearing for the requesting party to an in-person hearing at the hearing site closest to where the employment services were performed. Whether the nonrequesting party will also be required to participate in person shall be at the discretion of the administrative law judge assigned to the case.

(c) An administrative law judge, or the review board, may, at their discretion, schedule and conduct an in-person hearing under this rule.

(1) exchange any exhibits to be introduced into the record at the hearing; and

(2) provide a copy of those exhibits in the form and manner prescribed by the department to the administrative law judge, or to the review board, no later than three (3) days prior to the scheduled hearing date.

For exhibits mailed using certified mail or a private carrier, a copy of the certified mail mailing label or a copy of the label from a private carrier shall serve as proof of mailing.

(e) If, at the time of the scheduled hearing, all participants have not received copies of any exhibits, if the presenting party can establish proof that the party provided a copy of the exhibits in the form and manner prescribed by the department, the administrative law judge, or the review board, has the discretion of continuing the hearing in order to allow all participants to obtain copies of all exhibits, or of attempting to have any missing exhibits read into the record, while affording the opposing party the opportunity to object to the admission of the exhibits. If the presenting party cannot establish proof that the party provided a copy of the exhibits in the form and manner prescribed by the department, then the hearing will proceed as scheduled, without the consideration of the missing exhibits.

(f) A party to a telephonic hearing before an administrative law judge, or the review board, shall submit one (1) contact telephone number for the hearing. If a party has a representative, or has witnesses, that party shall arrange for that party's representative, or witnesses, to be at that party's location, or shall arrange for the conferencing of the additional individuals into the hearing. Sec. 6. (a) An election duly approved under this rule shall become effective at the beginning of the calendar quarter in which the election was submitted unless the election, as approved, specifies the beginning of a different calendar quarter. If the electing unit requests an earlier effective date than the beginning of the calendar quarter in which the election is submitted, the earlier date may be approved solely as to those interested jurisdictions in which the employer had no liability to pay contributions for the earlier period in question.

(b) The application of an election to any individual under this rule shall terminate if the agency of the elected jurisdiction finds that the nature of the services customarily performed by the individual for the electing unit has changed, so that they are no longer customarily performed in more than one (1) participating jurisdiction. Such termination shall be effective at the close of the calendar quarter in which notice of the finding is sent to all parties affected.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (b), each election approved shall remain in effect through the close of the calendar year in which it is submitted until the close of the calendar quarter in which the electing unit gives written notice of its termination to all affected agencies.

(d) Whenever an election under this rule ceases to apply to any individual under subsection (b) or (c), the electing unit shall notify the affected individual accordingly.
