About the Skillful Approach:

Skillful is developing skills-based training and employment practices to help the nearly 70% of Americans without a four-year college degree secure good jobs in a rapidly changing economy. Skillful, in close partnership with Microsoft and local organizations, works with:

- Career Coaches to equip them with the tools they need to help job seekers hone existing skills or acquire new ones and connect with good jobs
- Employers to focus their recruiting, hiring, on-boarding, and training processes on skills
- Educators to ensure that students graduate with the skills they need to flourish in the 21st century economy
- Policy makers to integrate skills-based practices into their workforce development efforts
