The Complaint Resolution Process by Investigation

A written complaint must be signed and dated by the complainant (sample form attached). The complainant must sign and include his/her name and address, the identity of the person the complaint is made against, and a detailed description of the Complainant's allegations. The Recipient's Equal Opportunity (EO) Officer may assist the Complainant in filing his/her complaint. The Recipient will provide a written acknowledgement of receipt of the complaint to the Complainant within 7 calendar days from the date the complaint is filed. The Recipient will notify the Complainant of the following:

- His/her right to be represented in the complaint process;
- A list of the issues raised in the complaint; for each issue, a statement that the Recipient will accept the issue for investigation or reject it; and, if rejected, the reason for each rejection;
- Provides notice of rights contained in 29 CFR 38.35; and
- Provides notice that complainant has right to request and receive, at no cost, auxiliary aids and services, language assistance services, and that this notice will be translated into the non-English languages.
- The option of resolving the complaint by the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) or Mediation Process instead of an investigation (see below);
- That there will be a period of 15 calendar days (Days 8 – 22) during which the EO Officer will investigate the facts underlying the complaint;
- That there will be a period of 8 calendar days (Days 23 – 30) during which the Recipient will attempt to resolve the complaint, including the ADR Process; and
- A statement that the Complainant is due a decision or Notice of Final Action within 90 days after receipt of the complaint.

The Notice of Final Action will contain, for each issue raised in the complaint, either a statement of the Recipient's decision on the issue and an explanation of the reasons underlying the decision, or a description of the way the parties resolved the issue. The Notice of Final Action will advise the Complainant that if he/she is dissatisfied with the decision, he/she must appeal the local decision to the Indiana Civil Rights Commission within 30 days of the date on which the Notice of Final Action was issued if he/she is dissatisfied with that response.

The Complaint Resolution Process by Alternative Dispute Resolution or Mediation

If the Complainant chooses to have his/her complaint resolved by the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) or Mediation process rather than by investigation, the Recipient will provide the following:

- An impartial mediator who is trained in mediation techniques and the principles of equal opportunity;
- That both parties to the complaint must sign a consent form affirming that the contents of the mediation will be kept confidential and that both parties agree not to involve the mediator in any litigation;
- That any successful resolution obtained shall be recorded in a written settlement agreement and signed by both parties. There should be no written record or other recording made of the meeting; and
- That if the parties cannot reach agreement under the ADR process, the Complainant may file directly with the Civil Rights Center (at the address provided herein) within 180 days of the alleged act of discrimination. In the event the agreement is breached, the non-breaching party may file the complaint directly with the Civil Rights Center within 30 days of the date on which the non-breaching party learns of the alleged breach.

The Recipient's EO Officer, Ms. Mellisa Leaming, can be contacted at (765) 807-0888 (Voice), Relay Indiana 800-743-3333 (TTY) for assistance in filing a complaint.
