Re: Updated guidance for individuals, families, case managers and providers

As part of our on-going efforts to provide guidance in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Bureau of Developmental Disabilities is publishing updated guidance related to its temporary policy changes related to COVID-19. This updated guidance includes specific guidance for individuals and families, case managers and providers. The following documents are under the BDDS section of the DDRS COVID-19 webpage, which is available by clicking here.

- Guidance to Families on COVID-19 Temporary Policy Changes
- Guidance on the Provision of Case Management and COVID-19
- Guidance for BDDS Providers on Temporary Policy Changes Related to COVID-19 - updates to previously issued guidance are noted in red.
