Re: Webinar opportunity for individuals and families
Date: December 9, 2020

The Bureau of Developmental Disabilities Services is excited to share an opportunity for individuals and families to learn more about using remote support services. One of six Indiana remote supports providers, Night Owl, is offering a webinar on Tuesday, Dec. 15, 2020, at 6 p.m. EST for individuals and families that are interested in learning about how they might utilize remote supports in their vision of a good life.

Night Owl will be hosting this webinar but be on the lookout for future webinars on remote supports from our other approved providers. This announcement is not meant to be an endorsement or recommendation of Night Owl over other remote supports providers and is only intended to share an opportunity for individuals and families to learn more.
