Re: Remote services webinar opportunity for individuals and families
Date: December 22, 2020

The Bureau of Developmental Disabilities Services is excited to share an opportunity for individuals and families to learn more about using remote support services. One of six Indiana remote supports providers, THS Remote Support Services, is offering a webinar on Jan. 28, 2021, at 11 a.m. EST, for individuals and families that are interested in learning more about how remote supports can assist them in their vision of a good life. Please see registration information below.

THS Remote Support Services will be hosting this particular webinar and BDDS will continue to share information from our other approved providers as they offer similar opportunities. This announcement is not meant to be an endorsement or recommendation of THS Remote Support Services over other remote supports providers and is only intended to share an opportunity for individuals and families to learn more.

When: Jan 28, 2021, 11 a.m. EST

Topic: Remote Supports Introduction / Information
