

AMHH Service Qualifications

This guide provides a simple-overview of the qualifications a staff person must have to deliver a service under the AMHH program. Each service requires different qualifications/licensing to provide and some service activities under each service require different qualifications. Be sure that the staff person delivering a service meets the requirements as outlined in the Indiana administrative code.

Adult Day Services

Who Can Provide It?
Service activity	Required qualifications
Nutritional assessment and planning	Certified dietitian
General adult day services	Licensed professional except licensed clinical addiction counselor
	QBHPs
	OBHPs
Medication administration	A licensed physician
	An authorized health care professional
	A registered nurse
	A licensed practical nurse
	A medical assistant who has graduated from a two-year clinical program

Supported Community Engagement

Who Can Provide It?
	Licensed professional
	QBHPs
	OBHPs

Care Coordination

Who Can Provide It?
	Licensed professional
	QBHPs
	OBHPs

Respite Care

Who Can Provide It?
Service activity	Required qualifications
General respite care services	Licensed professional
	QBHPs
	OBHPs
Medication administration	A licensed physician
	An advanced practice nurse
	An RN
	An LPN
	A physician assistant

HCB Habilitation and Support

Who Can Provide It?
	Licensed professional except a licensed clinical addiction counselor
	QBHPs
	OBHPs

Therapy and Behavioral Support

Who Can Provide It?

Licensed professional except a licensed clinical addiction counselor

QBHPs

Addiction Counseling

Who Can Provide It?

Licensed professionals/qualified addiction professionals

QBHPs

Medication Training and Support

Who Can Provide It?

A licensed physician

AN AHCP

A licensed registered nurse

An LPN

A medical assistant who has graduated from a two-year clinical program