State officials to discuss Healthy Indiana Plan expansion in Lafayette

A top official from Governor Pence's administration will be in Lafayette on Friday, June 13, to detail the Governor's plans to expand the Healthy Indiana Plan to cover approximately 350,000 more Hoosiers. Franciscan St. Elizabeth Health will host "a conversation about the future of health care in Indiana" featuring Debra Minott, Secretary of the Indiana Family and Social Services Administration. The event is open to the public and will take place at Franciscan St. Elizabeth Health – Lafayette East, Conference Room 1F27/28 at 1701 S. Creasy Lane in Lafayette.

Last month, Governor Pence announced his plans to advance private, market-based Medicaid reforms in Indiana by expanding the current Healthy Indiana Plan. Pence unveiled HIP 2.0, a consumer-driven health care coverage program for low-income adults that builds on Indiana's history of consumer-driven health care while providing new incentives for members to take personal responsibility for their health.
