

Indiana State Loan Repayment Program (IN-SLRP)

December 2022

Overview

The Indiana State Loan Repayment Program (IN-SLRP) is a workforce retention program that provides student loan repayment to health professionals to encourage the full-time delivery of primary care, mental, and dental healthcare services at practices located in federally designated health professional shortage areas \(HPSAs\) in Indiana. HPSAs are geographic areas, population groups, or healthcare facilities that have been designated by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) as having a shortage of health professionals.

IN-SLRP recipients can receive up to $20,000 to repay their outstanding student loans in exchange for two years of service. Participants may reapply for the program once, for a total of up to $40,000 for four years of service.
