health agency and maintained overall responsibility for the services provided, for 1 of 1 home health agency.

Findings include:

A review of agency policy 0-664, "Contract Management - Insurance and Supplemental, Facility, and Staffing Contracts," revised 06/15/22, indicated "Our Policy: BAYADA Home Health Care has procedures for the negotiation, management, and renewal of clinical service agreements." The policy failed to evidence the written agreement was required to indicate BAYADA was the primary agency and maintained overall responsibility for services provided.

A review of the Home Health Aide Service Agreement with Entity B (a home health agency), signed by the Administrator on 11/01/22, indicated, but was not limited to, "... Agency [Entity B] is willing to provide supplemental staffing services ... upon the request of BAYADA in

- Policy 0-965, Subcontracted Services – added statement that written agreements are required to indicate the agency is the primary agency and maintains overall responsibility for the services provided.

- 0-308 Nursing/Home Health Aide Service Agreement – edited to clarify that agency is the primary agency and maintains overall responsibility for the services provided.

By 8/4/2023 the Director, Regulatory Support and Guidance, will conduct mandatory, comprehensive education for the administrator and alternate administrator. The curriculum includes the following:

- Instruction on federal regulation 484.105(e)(2)(i-iv) and state regulation 410 IAC 17-12-2(d)

- Instruction on revisions made to policy 0-965, Subcontracted Services – added statement that written agreements are required to Article 1, section A indicated the nature and scope of services to be provided by Entity B were Home Health Aide services. The Home Health Aide Service Agreement with Entity B failed to indicate BAYADA Pediatrics was the primary agency and maintained overall responsibility for the services provided.

A review of agency policy 0-965, "Subcontracted Services," last revised 08/21/17, indicated the following terms are addressed in the contract, including but not limited to: "a. Clients are accepted for care only by BAYADA as the primary home health agency ... "

On 06/29/23 at 2:11 PM, Person A (Administrator for Entity B) indicated they started as Administrator for Entity B in May of 2023 and was unaware of a staffing contract with BAYADA, but if Entity B provided a home health aide to BAYADA, it would be considered a staffing only agreement and BAYADA would maintain responsibility for the care and services provided.

On 06/29/23 at 5:01 PM, the "Home Health Aide Service primary agency and maintains overall responsibility for the services provided.

· Instruction on revisions made to 0-308Nursing/Home Health Aide Service Agreement – edited to clarify that agency is the primary agency and maintains overall responsibility for the services provided.

By 8/25/23, the revised 0-308 Nursing/Home Health Aide Service Agreement will be executed with the agency contracted for home health aide services.

Effective 8/27/23, the execution of any new service agreements for home health aide services will be monitored by the administrator on an ongoing basis to ensure that the revised version with agency is primary and maintains overall responsibility for the services provided is executed. The agency will achieve 100% compliance.

The Administrator has overall

Agreement," was reviewed with the Administrator. The Administrator indicated it did not evidence that BAYADA was the primary agency and maintained overall responsibility for care.
