They could talk about everything important to them and she came to love him like a son. On 12/8/22, in the afternoon, Employee 3 came to her room. She was surprised because she hadn't usually seen him in the afternoon, just in the mornings. He came in the room, knelt down in front of her wheelchair, indicated he had been let go by the facility and was leaving his employment. He couldn't tell her why he had been let go. She indicated she had cried but had also been very angry with him. She indicated he was very intelligent but was a man, but didn't think with his head, rather another part of his anatomy. She indicated Employee 3 had been tempted by Resident N who lived on the 2nd floor of the facility. The resident indicated she'd known Resident N for years and had gone to school with her. She indicated Resident N was flirtatious with men and then would rebuff them when they became interested. When questioned why she thought this, she indicated that Employee 3 would always bring Resident N to mass and she observed him, several times, "tenderly" and "lovingly" caress the resident's shoulders. Resident J indicated it was a caress that would occur between a man and woman. Before Employee 3 had left her room, on 12/8/22, he had asked for her phone number so he could contact her after he left. She indicated she'd felt bad, but she had lied to him and told him she couldn't remember the number because she hadn't thought it was proper to give it to him. She told him she would pray for him and hoped he could get his life straightened out. She indicated he asked if he could kiss and hug her goodbye. She indicated she had cried for 2 days after he left and missed him. On 12/19/22 at 12:40 P.M., Resident J's record was reviewed. Diagnoses included hemiplegia (paralysis) of the right dominant side following a stroke and dependence on a wheelchair. A quarterly MDS (Minimum Data Set) assessment, dated 9/28/22, indicated she had no cognitive impairment, mood indicators, or behaviors. Care plans, revised on 9/14/20, indicated Resident J demonstrated independence in her decision making. She needed religious/spiritual support with a goal of having her spiritual needs met by pastoral care. Her care plans had not indicated any behaviors towards other residents/staff, behaviors of making false accusations or fabrication/embellishment of events. Progress notes indicated the following: -12/9/22 at 6:00 a.m., the resident reported to the nurse a male staff member (Employee 3) had given her a hug, kissed her on the lips as he was leaving and had asked for her phone number so he could keep in touch after he was no longer employed at the facility. The Administrator and Director of Nursing (DON) were notified. -At 9:48 a.m., the resident spoke with the day shift nurse (Employee 6) about the incident. The resident denied distress over the situation but reported her concern for "anyone else he may have done this to". The resident was told a member of management would speak with her. | | | | Resident is competent to visit. Per ISDH Surveyor interview, SSD interview, all statements to her nurse, resident said she expected former employee to tell her goodbye, give her a hug and a kiss. Resident in all interviews stated she was upset that he was leaving because he was like a son to her. On 12/12, nurse documented resident asked for the former employee's ph #. When told the nurse didn't have it, the resident persisted by asking for the ph # the former employee attends. | | |

She believed Resident N, who lived upstairs, reported him. She indicated Resident N was always flirting and batting her eyes at Employee 3 and was a big "flirt" who was probably jealous. -12/12/22 at 10:45 a.m., a Social Services note indicated a follow up interview had been completed with Resident J. During the interview, Resident J had indicated she was upset at her friend choosing to leave the facility but she supported his decision because it was best for him. She became tearful as she described her relationship with Employee 3 whom she indicated was like a son to her. When asked about the kiss he had given her, she indicated it was what she had expected and he was like a son to her. She hadn't expressed any further concerns. She was offered the opportunity to speak with a talk therapist and she accepted. -At 6:16 p.m., a Licensed Social Worker (LSW)/talk therapist indicated she met with the resident in the dining room. Resident J was inviting, pleasant, spoke about the holiday and being with family. She was asked if she was doing alright since her friend (Employee 3) had been dismissed. She indicated they had been good friends. Employee 3 had told her the facility had let him go but he hadn't been able to tell her why. She went on to say he kissed her but it had been a peck on her mouth. He had asked her for her phone number but she told him she hadn't thought it was a good idea. The Administrator indicated Human Resources (HR) staff had been unable to find the criminal background check done at the time Employee 3 was hired. On 12/20/22 at 12:36 P.M., the HR director was interviewed. She indicated, on 12/8/22, Employee 3 submitted his resignation on the recommendation of the Administrator. The HR Director indicated when Employee 3 had been hired, she had been leaving for an extended leave of absence and had been trying to orient her replacement. The position had been vacated abruptly and the position needed filled immediately. Employee 3 had credible references and was hired. She indicated she had not been able to find the employee's criminal background check. The check was required to be done for employment at the facility. She indicated it may have been missed due to the confusion with the leave of absence and the need to fill the open position immediately. A current facility policy, titled "Abuse Prevention" and provided by the Administrator on 12/19/22 at 12:15 P.M., stated the following: "It is the policy of [facility] to adhere to CMS guidelines and Indiana Administrative Code (IAC) regarding resident's right to be free from abuse, neglect and exploitation...3. [Facility] will establish policies and procedures to prohibit and prevent abuse, neglect, exploitation and misappropriation property, watch for changes that may cause abusive behavior and review interventions on a regular basis, such as: A. Screen and train employees to protect residents and prohibit and prevent abuse, neglect and exploitation. B. Identify, investigate and report any incidents of abuse, neglect or exploitation...Abuse is defined as: Sexual, physical and mental abuse...Screening | | | | results shared at QA meeting. Social services staff were to interview other residents for abuse or inappropriate contact. On 12/20/22 at 9:25 A.M., during an interview, Resident J indicated Employee 3 had been her special friend. On 12/8/22, in the afternoon, he came to her room, knelt down in front of her wheelchair, indicated he had been let go by the facility and was leaving his employment. He couldn't tell her why he had been let go. She indicated she had cried but had also been very angry with him. She indicated he was very intelligent but was a man and didn't think with his head, rather another part of his anatomy. She indicated Employee 3 had been tempted by Resident N who lived on the 2nd floor of the facility. The resident indicated she'd known Resident N for years and had gone to school with her. She indicated Resident N was flirtatious with men and then would rebuff them when they became interested. When questioned why she thought this, she indicated that Employee 3 would always bring Resident N to mass. She had observed him several times "tenderly" and "lovingly" caress the resident's shoulders. Resident J indicated it was a caress that would occur between a man and woman. Before Employee 3 had left her room, on 12/8/22, he had asked for her phone number so he could contact her after he left. She indicated she'd felt bad, but she had lied to him and told him she couldn't remember the number because she hadn't thought it was proper to give it to him. She told him she would pray for him and hoped he could get his life straightened out. She indicated he asked if he could kiss and hug her goodbye.
