

STATE OF INDIANA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
INDIANAPOLIS

Executive Order PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETINGS:

- WHEREAS, Monday, July 13, 2015 marks the 228th anniversary of the signing of the Ordinance of 1787, which established provisions for governing the Northwest Territory, an area that eventually became the states of Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, and part of Minnesota; and
- WHEREAS, the Northwest Ordinance provided the means by which new territories became states on an equal footing with the 13 original states, assuring the orderly growth of the United States as it expanded westward. Thirty-one states of the Union, including Indiana, achieved statehood under the provisions of the Ordinance of 1787; and
- WHEREAS, the Articles of Compact of the Northwest Ordinance assured citizens of certain basic rights and freedoms, including religious freedom, the right to trial by jury, the writ of habeas corpus, the sanctity of property and contracts, the encouragement of education, and the prohibition of slavery and involuntary servitude; and
- WHEREAS, many of these rights and freedoms were not a part of the Constitution until passage in 1791 of the Bill of Rights and the passage of amendments following the Civil War;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Michael R. Pence, Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim July 13, 2015 as in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

In Testimony Whereof, I hereto set my hand and cause to be affixed the Great Seal of State. Done at the City of Indianapolis, this 20th day of June in the year of our Lord 2015 and of the Independence of the United States 239.

BY THE GOVERNOR:

Michael R. Pence
