

RECEIVED
MAR 15 2006
INDIANA HISTORICAL BUREAU

HANCOCK COUNTY CEMETERY COMMISSION

FEBRUARY 28, 2006

TO: INDIANA HISTORICAL BUREAU

RE: 2005 ANNUAL REPORT

BUDGET

Beginning Balance:	$	185.50
County Funds		2,250.00

EXPENDITURES

Nyalox Brushes, Tile Probes, Gasoline, and misc. supplies	470.33
Deposit on Power Wagon	268.20
Utility Trailer	800.00
Trailer Title	36.00
Stone Restoration	780.00
Pratt Cemetery sign	129.00

ACTIVITIES

Conducted deed research at the County Courthouse for Alford Cemetery
Commission Vice-President, Jim Shelby, spoke with Greenfield Mayor
Rodney Fleming regarding neglect of Old Greenfield Cemetery
Registered Pratt and Alford Cemeteries with the DNR-DHPA Worked with Jon Brunnemer, boy scout, at Steele Cemetery so he could earn his Eagle Scout badge Worked with Andrew Hemmerlein, boy scout, at Alford Cemetery so he could earn his Eagle Scout badge
Submitted 2006 Budget to County Auditor
Presented program to the Hancock County Historical Society in July
Presented program to Kiwanis Club in September Presented program to Century 21 Realty Group Elsbury, on cemeteries and how they affect real estate and discussed pertinent laws regarding cemeteries

Neared completion of Pratt Cemetery
The Brandywine Junior historical Society paid for two signs at Pratt Cemetery
Richard Parker , Treasurer, resigned from commission

Election of Officers:

Judy Davis-Fuller, President

Leisa Harmon, Treasurer

Helen Parker, Secretary

(Vice-President and Member-at-Large positions still open)

PLANS FOR 2006

Complete restoration of Pratt Cemetery
Complete restoration of Alford Cemetery as finances allow Fill vacancies on Cemetery Commission Board
Continue to promote activities of the Cemetery Commission and encourage donations and volunteer help

Respectfully submitted,

Leisa M. Harmon, Treasurer

cc: Hancock County Commissioners
Hancock County Council