

Indiana Women and the Civil War

A Fourth-Grade Lesson Plan

Prepared by the Indiana Historical Bureau

January 23, 2007

Document 2-5

Activity Sheets

GROUP 1

Poem: Read each line of the poem listed below and then write in the space provided

(Interpretation) what you think the author is saying in the following lines.

And our noble women, the soldier cries,
As he wipes with his sleeve his dimming eyes,
They send us clothing and food and books,
And kindest letters and sweetest looks,
And words of noble and lofty cheer!
And with these what craven could think of fear?

Interpretation:

Indiana Women and the Civil War

A Fourth-Grade Lesson Plan

Prepared by the Indiana Historical Bureau

January 23, 2007

Using this picture, answer the questions below:

What is going on in this picture?

Who is depicted in this image? What are they doing?

What do you think is going through the minds of the individuals represented in this image?

What does your group find most interesting about this image?

Who is not represented in this image that maybe should be? Why? [Think back to the lecture and discussion]