DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

ALPHABETICAL FOLDER LISTING

1902-1946

The alphabetical listing of folder titles that follows represents an interim solution to the problem of retrieval of information from the early records of the Department of Conservation. At this time the only way to locate specific information in the records is to conduct a folder by folder search of the records until the desired information is found or until the researcher is satisfied that no information on their specific topic exists in the records. In either event, it is a time-consuming task. The listing is based on the title of a folder and includes additional entries for all key words in the title. Once the title of the folder is found the listing will also give the dates of the material in the folder, its box and folder numbers and its shelf location in the Archives.

Unfortunately, the Archives has not had the services of a processor for nearly two years and this has necessitated an interim solution of this type. Undoubtedly, in the future, when the records are processed, it will become desirable to either update this finding aid or create an entirely new finding aid appropriate to the arrangement of the records after processing.
