

Accession 2022476

Governor Ed Jackson, 1925 to 1929

Governor Edward L. Jackson (1873-1954) was governor of Indiana from 1925-1929. Jackson was from Howard County where he had a law practice. Before WWI, he was elected Secretary of State but left to fight in the war. He was then elected governor in 1924 and only served one term. There was a lot of controversy around his tenure in office due to an accusation of bribery and the arrest of DC Stephenson, as the Ku Klux Klan was a powerful force in Indiana at the time. He lived out the rest of his days as an apple and cattle farmer in Southern Indiana.

Most of this accession pertains to correspondence, and the remaining documents are reports, bills, and other miscellaneous documents. The accession was primarily ordered alphabetically by the subject of the correspondence. It was decided to keep the original order. The correspondence ends in the last two boxes, and the reports, bills, and miscellaneous records begin.
