DIRECTOR’S REPORT
Chandler Lighty submitted the Director’s Report previously distributed to the OCPR for review.
The report includes a narrative from Claire Horton/Archives, Marilyn Fernandez/Records Management, Meaghan Fukunaga/Electronic Records.

Chandler Lighty invited all members to review the Annual Report developed by Meaghan Fukunaga. The report highlights the accomplishments of IARA in 2020. The agency is reaching out to obtain records of outgoing State leaders. A contract with Ancestry.com was just completed for the digitization of vital records which will net the agency some money as well as make the records more accessible for public use. The Administrative rule process for medical records access is still in progress. IARA’s appropriation in HB1001 for the next biennium has a provision that some of the appropriated funds are for conducting a study to determine the cost of digitizing all records housed at the Archives of historic significance and of interest to researchers and the general public including a website permitting access. Study is to be completed by November 2022. This will be a priority for the upcoming fiscal year.

NEW BUSINESS
1. Film Verification Policy – DRAFT

An update was presented by Meaghan Fukunaga. This policy will allow the lab to create procedures to prevent and protect them from being the final de facto verifier of microfilm that is created. It is the responsibility of the originating agency to verify its quality and veracity. It is a difficult policy to gain compliance from agencies. Item 2b states the agency must verify in accordance with 60 IAC 2. It provides support for agencies on how to verify microfilm from the lab. Template letters to be utilized in working with agencies at various stages are included.

Tammy Glickman pointed out the cited authority (IC5-15-5.1-8) states this policy must be enacted by OCPR in compliance with Indiana Supreme Court because these documents must meet standards to be admissible in court.

Following the correction of a few edits and the presentation to and approval of the Indiana Supreme Court, this policy will appear on a future OCPR agenda under Old Business in its final format for review and possible approval by the OCPR.
