

Bicentennial Quilt to be Unveiled

First Lady Karen Pence, Indiana's Bicentennial Ambassador to display quilt at the Statehouse

(INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.) June 24, 2016 – First Lady Karen Pence, Indiana's Bicentennial Ambassador will welcome Tippecanoe County quilter Gloria Klutzke to unveil her Bicentennial quilt at the Statehouse. Klutzke's quilt, titled "Migrations Over the Crossroads of America," will be on display until July 11.

WHO: First Lady Karen Pence
Indiana Bicentennial Commission Executive Director, Perry Hammock
Quilter, Gloria Klutzke

WHAT: Indiana Bicentennial Quilt Unveiling

WHEN: Monday, June 27, 2016 at 11 a.m.

WHERE: Indiana Statehouse (North Atrium)
200 W. Washington St.
Indianapolis, IN 46204

Contact: Jylian Vigar
Indiana Bicentennial Commission Communications Coordinator
jvigar@indiana2016.in.gov
765.470.1035