

COVID-19 HOUSING AND UTILITY RESOURCES FOR HOOSIERS

HOUSING AND UTILITY RESOURCES

- At the Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority (IHCDA), we are committed to our mission of providing housing opportunities, promoting self-sufficiency, and strengthening communities.
- Over the past few months, we have worked closely with partners and sub-grantees to identify a variety of housing and utility resources for Hoosiers impacted financially by the COVID-19 pandemic.

RESOURCE GUIDE

- IHEDA partnered with the Indiana Department of Financial Institutions (IDFI), the Indiana Apartment Association (IAA), Indiana Bankers Association (IBA), Indiana Mortgage Bankers Association (IMBA) and the Indiana Credit Union League (ICUL), to develop a prevention guide aimed at helping Hoosiers continue paying their rent and mortgage payments.
- The guide also provides a list of available resources.
- The guide can be found here: <https://www.in.gov/iheda/4464.htm>.

COMMUNICATIONS TOOLKIT

- We recognize that the most effective way to inform Hoosiers about these key resources is through our local network of community organizations like not-for-profits, community foundations, Township Trustees, faith-based organizations, local elected officials, etc.
- To assist you with disseminating this important information, we developed a communications toolkit for you to easily share information about these programs with the individuals you serve.
- The toolkit can be found at:
www.in.gov/ihcda/coronavirus.htm

**For questions about this toolkit, please contact communications@ihcda.in.gov.*
