

Robert B. Pojasek, Ph.D.

Organizations:

Sole Proprietor, Pojasek & Associates LLC

Managing Director, Center for Corporate Responsibility & Sustainability

Board Chair: Education & Research
Executive Board, VCARE Academy

Instructor, Harvard University

Dr. Pojasek has been a consultant and a teacher. He taught pollution prevention and organizational sustainability at Tufts University, Harvard School of Public Health, and the Harvard Extension School. He has been recognized for his work by the National Pollution Prevention Roundtable, the Canadian Pollution Prevention Roundtable, and the American Institute for Pollution Prevention (Board Chair).

Dr. Pojasek was the principal author of the US EPA's manual, "An Organizational Guide to Pollution Prevention" (2001). He also wrote, "Making the Business Case for EHS (2005) winning the APEX award for the best how-to book that year. Dr. Pojasek has published more than 100 publications on P2 and Organizational Sustainability.

For the past four decades, Dr. Pojasek has consulted at more than 500 facilities in almost every major NAICS category. He has also used his P2 methods in 24 different countries.