

2019 21ST CCLC MULTI-STATE CONFERENCE

OCTOBER 6-9, 2019

OLD NATIONAL EVENTS PLAZA
EVANSVILLE, INDIANA

Convening out-of-school time youth workers, educators, and program administrators from Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia for a unique opportunity to learn alongside each other.

This three-day conference provides sessions that, collectively, help program staff and administrators build stronger foundations for youth to thrive. This year's theme is: #GetRooted: Creating a Strong Foundation for 21st Century Youth.

5 CONFERENCE TRACKS

Programming

Personal Development

Administration

Inclusion

Support

For full session details visit: www.in21stcclcmultistate.com

SPECIAL EVENTS & OPPORTUNITIES

Pre-Conference Leadership Intensive - Becoming an Agent for Change: Harnessing Your Leadership Power and Influence: An experiential, half-day seminar designed to help YOU learn to strategically leverage your strengths and skills to create change. Cost: $99.00; Limited Space Available; Add the Pre-Conference Intensive onto your conference registration. Read more here: www.bit.ly/2IRW8A2; Sunday, October 6, 2:00-7:00 PM

Opening Reception: Enjoy free food and drinks while exploring the Children's Museum of Evansville! Take some time to meet other professionals from the field, explore the museum, and even hop on stage and show off your Karaoke skills! Monday, October 7, 6:00-10:00 PM

Conference Service Project: Give back to the youth of Evansville, Indiana by making a donation of a new/gently used clothing item and/or an inclusive toiletry item to Hangers, a local program, that works with underserved youth in the district while at the conference.

REGISTER ONLINE!

To register, complete the online form and make your payment:

www.in21stcclcmultistate.com

Conference attendance fees are as follows:

May 1 – June 15: $150.00/person; June 16 – July 31: $175.00/person; August 1 – August 31: $200/person

*Conference Registration closes on August 31st