The names of offenders who have parole or clemency hearings during July 2014 appear on the attached news release. The names of parole violators are still being assembled and do not appear on the news release. An agenda will be posted at each day's hearing if an agenda is used.

All hearings and meetings (except for executive sessions) will be open to observers to the extent that space exists without the capacity of the room being exceeded or exits being blocked. In addition to the above safety requirements, the institutions screen persons desiring to observe to protect the security of the institution. Observers do not have a right to speak or to participate in the Board's proceedings unless the hearing or meeting is being held to receive information from the person desiring to speak. Hearings labeled "public" are to receive information from the public; and the other hearings are to receive information from the offender.

Individuals who have information or comments either for or against an offender are welcome to write the Parole Board at the following address: Indiana Parole Board, Indiana Government Center South, 402 West Washington Street, Room W466, Indianapolis, or to schedule an appointment to speak in person with Board Members to the extent of available time on the Board's calendar.

Persons wishing to provide information for or against an offender a any of the three (3) "public" hearings may do so by making an appointment by telephoning the Parole Board office. Because Board decisions are rendered immediately in most cases at the institution where the offender appears, the "public" hearing at Wabash Valley Correctional Facility will be to receive information on only those cases not already voted on at Westville Correctional Facility, Indiana State Prison, and the Indiana Women's Prison. Persons wishing to provide information on offenders at Westville Correctional Facility, Indiana State Prison, and the Indiana Women's Prison may appear at "public" hearings in Indianapolis or Michigan City, or write the Board before the Board votes. The Board will delay voting on individual offenders at Westville Correctional Facility, Indiana State Prison, and the Indiana Women's Prison if an appointment has been made for those persons desiring o provide information a the "public" hearing at Wabash Valley Correctional Facility. Such appointments must be made by telephoning the Parole Board office a week in advance of the Board's scheduled vote. The Indiana Parole Board office telephone number is 317-232-5673.
