

Bio of David L. Rimstidt, Administrative Law Judge (ALJ)

ALJ Rimstidt graduated from Indiana University School of Law in Indianapolis, Indiana in 1974. Prior to law school, he received his Bachelors of Science in Business Management and Administration from Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana in 1971. He is a licensed attorney in good standing with the Indiana Supreme Court. ALJ Rimstidt is a former Chief Deputy Prosecutor of the Marion County Prosecutor's Office, which he retired from in 2018. Prior to his retirement, he worked for Marion Superior Court in a number of capacities: General Counsel, Master Commissioner, and Judge. In addition, ALJ Rimstidt was a mediator, arbitrator, special master, and private judge, specializing in complex litigation for Van Winkle Batten Rimstidt Dispute Resolution, Inc. ALJ Rimstidt's previous administrative law experience includes being named Special Administrative Law Judge for the Indiana Horse Racing Commission, where he sat as the hearing officer for alleged violations of laws, regulations and rules regarding pari-mutuel thoroughbred, Standardbred, and quarter horse racing in Indiana, and Special Administrative Law Judge for the Indiana Gaming Commission, where he sat as the hearing officer for gaming licensee disputes and for the Indiana Department of Administration's final status determination of Minority/Women Business Enterprises. Salary and other public information for state ALJs and other employees can be found at the Indiana Transparency Portal at <https://www.in.gov/idoa/2448.htm>.