WHEREAS, the Indiana Department of Insurance Consumer Protection Unit (“Department”) received notification from the Indiana Department of Child Services Child Support Bureau (“Child Services”) that Tara Barth (“Respondent”), a licensed insurance producer in Indiana, had a child support payment arrearage.

WHEREAS, on May 1, 2008, the Department sent a letter to Respondent, pursuant to Ind. Code §27-1-15.6-29, stating that if the child support arrearage was not paid in full, a request for the activation of an income withholding order establishing a payment plan was not made, or a request for a hearing was not made within twenty (20) days after the notice was mailed, Respondent's Indiana insurance producer license would be placed on probation.

WHEREAS, more than twenty (20) days have elapsed since the Department sent Respondent the May 1, 2008 letter.

WHEREAS, the Department has been notified by Child Services that Respondent has not paid the child support arrearage in full, requested the activation of an income withholding order establishing a payment plan, or requested a hearing.

WHEREAS, pursuant to Ind. IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED BY THE COMMISSIONER that Respondent's insurance producer license is hereby placed on probation, effective immediately, and will remain on probation until ten (10) business days after the Commissioner receives a notice from Child Services that Respondent has paid the child support arrearage in full or has established a payment plan to pay the arrearage and requested the activation of an income withholding order.
