DEPARTMENT'S MOTION TO CORRECT ERRORS

COMES NOW the Enforcement Division of the Indiana Department of Insurance ("Department), by counsel, Samantha Aldridge, pursuant to Indiana Code §4-21.5-2-31(d), and respectfully requests Amy L. Beard, Commissioner of the Indiana Department of Insurance ("Commissioner") vacate the Final Order issued January 4, 2022 due to clerical errors. In support, the Department shows:

- Shayna Walton ("Petitioner") is an applicant for licensure with license application # 894809.
- 2. The Final Order refers to Petitioner's application # 894809 as "License Number" in error as Petitioner is not licensed in the State of Indiana nor is the aforementioned number associated with any insurance license number in the State of Indiana.
- 3. The Final Order refuses to "renew Petitioner's nonresident producer license" in error.

- 4. The Petitioner is not licensed in the State of Indiana; the action sought and argued at evidentiary hearing, is for denial of Petitioner's application for resident producer license.
- 5. The Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Recommended Order ("Recommended Order") filed December 3, 2021, is consistent with the recommendation of denial of Petitioner's resident producer license application, but for the erroneous information under "Recommended Default Order" and the labeling of Petitioner's application number as "License Number".
- 6. The Findings of Fact section of the Recommended Order correctly identifies Petitioner as an applicant for resident producer license. The facts found therein are substantively reflective of the resident producer license sought and the preliminary denial issued.
- 7. The Conclusions of Law section of the Recommended Order correctly identifies Petitioner as an applicant requesting a resident producer license. The conclusions of law all concern Commissioner's ability to refuse to issue license and finds

  Petitioner failed to meet the burden of proving the Commissioner's initial denial was unreasonable; the conclusions are consistent with a recommended denial of a resident producer license.

- 8. The Recommended Order filed December 3, 2021, is also consistent with the Department's proposed Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Recommended Order filed on November 23, 2021 with the exception of the erroneous information under "Recommended Default Order" and the labeling of Petitioner's application number as "License Number".

license number and the "Recommended Default Order" refusing to renew

9. The Department believes the errors, the license application number listed as a nonresident producer license, are clerical in nature as the Final Order is inconsistent with Petitioner's status as a resident producer applicant, the action at issue is a denial, and the substantive portion of the Recommended Order is consistent with a denial of a resident producer license.

WHEREFORE, the Department respectfully requests that the Commissioner vacate the Final Order issued January 4, 2022 and issue an Amended Final Order affirming the denial of Petitioner's resident producer application number 894809.

Respectfully submitted,

Samantha Aldridge, #35162-49

Indiana Department of Insurance

MODIFIED FINAL ORDER

- 1. On December 3, 2021, the Administrative Law Judge, Reuben B. Hill, filed his Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Recommended Order (the "Recommended Order") in the above-captioned matter.
- 2. On January 4, 2022, the Commissioner of Insurance issued a Final Order, adopting the Recommended Order in full and affirming the refusal "to renew Petitioner's nonresident producer license under license number 894809" set forth in the Recommended Order.
- 3. On January 13, 2022, counsel for the Department filed a Motion to Correct Errors (the "Motion"). The Motion identified clerical errors set forth in the Recommended Order which were affirmed by the Final Order; namely, that the Petitioner had submitted an application for a resident producer license, but the Recommended Order and the Final Order identified the license as a nonresident producer license.
- 4. The Motion further stated that the license application number was listed as a license number in the Recommended Order and the Final Order in error, as the Petitioner was not a licensed insurance producer.

5. The Recommended Order otherwise correctly identifies the Petitioner as an applicant requesting a resident producer license and is consistent with the recommendation of denial of Petitioner's resident producer license application, but for the clerical errors.

6. Under Ind. Code § 4-21.5-3-31(d), the Commissioner may modify the Final Order to correct clerical mistakes and other errors resulting from oversight or omission on the motion of any party.

Therefore, the Commissioner of Insurance, being fully advised, now hereby issues the following Modified Final Order, which corrects clerical errors in the Final Order:

1. The sentence, "Refusal to renew Petitioner's nonresident producer license under license number 894809 is AFFIRMED" is replaced in its entirety with the following sentence: "Denial of Petitioner's resident producer license application under license application number 894809 is AFFIRMED."

2. Except as set forth in Paragraph 1, the Modified Final Order does not modify any other provisions of the Final Order.

ALL OF WHICH IS ORDERED by the Commissioner this _ day of February,

2022.
