

Your Rights as an Indiana Voter

You have the right to vote privately and independently.

You have the right to assistance.

Assistance is available to those with a disability or who cannot read or write English. Assistance must be requested before entering the voting booth.

A voter may choose anyone to assist him or her, except his or her employer or union representative. If a voter does not choose someone, two poll workers—one from each party—will assist. The assistant(s) must complete a form provided at the polls before entering the booth.

You have the right to an accessible polling location.

All locations must meet accessibility guidelines and have at least one accessible voting machine.

You have the right to vote absentee.

- Absentee-in-person (early voting): you may vote at the county election board office in the weeks leading up to the election. To find your county's office, visit IndianaVoters.com and click on "Contact My County Election Office".
- Absentee-by-mail: those who are eligible may submit a request for an absentee ballot by contacting their County Clerk or the Secretary of State.
- Absentee-by-travelling board: those who are eligible may have a bi-partisan absentee voter board bring them a ballot. Contact your County Clerk or the Secretary of State to submit a request.

You have the right to a provisional ballot.

If your right to vote is challenged for any reason, you may complete a provisional ballot. This is a ballot you can fill out with your planned selections, but will be counted later on, after your issue is resolved.

Resources available to you at the polls:

Magnifiers for voters with visual impairments.

Tape to hold ballots in place for voters unable to hold them.

Chairs for voters unable to stand for extended periods of time. This includes while waiting in line and while casting your ballot.
