

November 15, 2022

Indiana Government Center South Auditorium

1:00 pm Welcome from Indiana Inspector General David Cook

1:15 pm – 2:15 pm Ethics and Social Media
Cari Sheehan, Assistant Clinical Professor of Business Law and Ethics,
Indiana University School of Business

This session will explore the applicable Rules of Professional Conduct regarding posting, commenting, tweeting, and replying to negative reviews on social media. Ms. Sheehan will discuss actual instances of lawyers who have gone astray on social media and tips so you can stay ethical while engaging in social media.

2:15 pm – 2:30 pm Reflecting on the Importance of Ethics in State Government
Mitch Daniels, President, Purdue University

In 2005, then Governor Mitch Daniels issued executive orders creating the Office of Inspector General and establishing ethical rules of conduct for state officers, employees, and special appointees. The former Governor will share his thoughts on the importance of ethics in state government.

2:30 pm – 2:45 pm Break

2:45 pm – 3:15 pm Indiana Rules of Professional Conduct and Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission Update
Greg Anderson, Deputy Director of Administration, Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission

During this session, Mr. Anderson, the Deputy Director of Administration for the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission, will provide an overview of the Indiana Rules of Professional Conduct and highlight some recent disciplinary cases that specifically apply to government attorneys.

3:15 pm – 4:15 pm OIG Attorney Panel: Code of Ethics FAQs
Sean Gorman, State Ethics Director, Office of Inspector General
Doreen Clark, Staff Attorney, Office of Inspector General
Mark Mader, Staff Attorney, Office of Inspector General
Tiffany Mulligan, Chief of Staff and Chief Legal Counsel, Office of Inspector General
Moderator: Jessica Keyes, Ethics Officer, Indiana Family and Social Services Administration

Attorneys with the Indiana Office of Inspector General will discuss common ethics questions posed by state government employees and agency ethics officers. The discussion will include the Code of Ethics rules on gifts, post-employment, outside employment, and ghost employment/use of state property.

4:15 pm – 4:30 pm Inspector General’s Award for Excellence
David Cook, Inspector General

Sponsored by the Office of Inspector General
Approved for 2.8 Hours CLE, including 2.8 Hours Ethics CLE